Our quality comittment

The course is organised taking into account the availability of the students, being the scheduling of theory classes and flight simulators specially designed for their comfort and optimal learning. This, coupled with the high quality of the CBTs, and the fully face-to-face course ensures that the students reach the full flight simulator phase with a solid foundation.

This theoretical phase includes the use of fixed simulators that represent a cabin of dimensions, technology and architecture equal to that of the real aircraft, rather than using touch screens.
